

ISRAEL IN CONTEXT WITH KEN STEIN

Israel, the U.S. and Iran — a CIE+ Webinar

Why did the United States and Israel decide to strike Iran now? What does the coordinated action say about the U.S.-Israel relationship? What are the possible consequences after the death of Iran's supreme leader? What should we watch for as the fighting unfolds?

Dr. Jonathan Rynhold, a professor in the Bar-Ilan University political studies department, the founder and academic director of Bar-Ilan's Jonathan Sacks Institute, and a CIE board member, and Michael Eisenstadt, the Kahn Senior Fellow and director of the Military and Security Studies Program at the Washington Institute for Near East Policy, join CIE President and Emory Emeritus Professor Ken Stein for a discussion on the war and Iran.
